

YOUNGSTOWN RIOTERS BURN FIFTY BUILDINGS

THREE KILLED; SCORE WOUNDED IN FIGHTING SITUATION APPEARS TO BE UNDER PARTIAL CONTROL THIS MORNING

Disturbance Follows Clash Between Strike Sympathizers and Armed Guards at Youngstown Sheet and Tube Company Plant—Three Regiments and A Battalion of National Guard Troops and Two Companies of Federal Troops Are Dispatched to Handle Situation.

BULLETIN.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 8.—National Guard troops began mobilizing outside the city early today but no troops will be brought in until daylight. Pending the arrival of troops, armed citizens patrolled the strike zone.

At three o'clock this morning the fire was still raging. At that time it was estimated that between twelve and fifteen city blocks had been burned, the buildings for five blocks along that principle street of East Youngstown being in ruins. The fire loss was estimated all the way from $500,000 to $1,000,000.

As a result of a report that strikers planned to blow up the Yellow Creek Dam below Struthers, which would result in the destruction of the water supply for that town, fifty armed citizens were detailed to guard the structure.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., Jan. 8.—At least three men were killed; more than a score of persons, including two women, were more or less severely wounded by bullets; scores of others received hurts of various degrees of seriousness; between forty and fifty buildings, including the postoffice were razed by flames after being looted by frenzied men, a property loss aggregating close to a million dollars was caused, and now, as morning approaches, the populace of this city and East Youngstown awaits with varying degrees of anxiety the arrival of state and federal troops.

This summarizes briefly the story of a wild night of arson and looting in East Youngstown, participated in by a mob of strike sympathizers which at one time aggregated 6,000 men armed with revolvers, knives, clubs and rocks.

The rioting started in all its ferocity about 6 o'clock last night after a day of disturbance at which time street cars were bombarded, many persons were assaulted and disorder reigned. The night's affray followed clash between strike sympathizers and armed guards at the plant of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube company as the men were quitting work last evening. This trouble was preceded early in the day by an encounter between workers and strike sympathizers. In the interim another riot occurred during which two men were injured so severely it was necessary to remove them to a hospital.

Three regiments and a battalion of national guard troops have been ordered to Youngstown in command of Brigadier General John S. Speaks of Columbus and two companies of federal troops also have been dispatched to assist in handling the situation.

Situation is Tense.

The situation this morning is tense, however and fears were expressed that rioting might be resumed momentarily. For practically six hours, crowds of men, many maddened with drink, ran thru the streets, smashing the windows of buildings with clubs and then tearing out entire fronts. The rioters then would loot the place and apply the torch.

With the rioting at its height, Oscar Diser, city solicitor of East Youngstown, organized a body of citizens, and armed with revolvers marched to the point where the rioters had just looted a building. The citizens fired a volley over the heads of the rioters, who returned the fire. Diser ordered his men to fire again, this time pointing their weapons point blank at the mob. About half a dozen men fell. Armed with night sticks, the solicitor and his men waded into the rioters, using their clubs freely and scattering the rioters. Many finally were rounded up and loaded into various kinds of vehicles and taken to the county jail. The streets were in this way partially cleared so that the Youngstown fire department could be brought in to fight the flames.

Nearly Fifty Men Arrested.
Nearly half a hundred men were arrested and taken to jail while others were loaded into wagons and taken to their homes.

One of the buildings attacked by the mob was that in which the postoffice was located. According to reports rioters forced their way into the building compelled a man who was on duty at the time to open the safe and then looted the place. The building later was burned.

The trouble of yesterday and last night was the culmination of a strike of laborers which began at the plant of the Republic Iron & Steel company a week ago and spread to the plants of the tube company, the Youngstown Iron & Steel company and the Brier Hill Steel company, all "independent" concerns. The men demand 25 cents an hour, the companies offer an increase from 19 1-2 cents to 22 cents per hour.

Mob Stones Private Police.

The most serious trouble started last night when the day shift at the sheet and tube mills left work. A crowd of 6,000 gathered at the entrance and stoned a squad of private police in charge of Chief J. M. Woltz, of the sheet and tube company force.

According to a statement made by Woltz he fired a blank shot in the air to scare the crowd and then firing became general. Nineteen in the crowd were wounded, following which the frenzied mob surged into the East Youngstown business district and set fire to several buildings. As the torch was applied first to a clothing store and then to a jewelry store the looting began. A saloon was fired and looted, the liquor being distributed thru the crowd.

The Youngstown fire department went to the scene but was driven off by the crowd. The East Youngstown department also attempted to check the blaze but the hose was cut and the firemen were driven away.

Sheriff Badly Beaten.

Youngstown, O., Jan. 7.—Sheriff Umstead, who, with Brigadier General Speaks and other National Guard officers, went to East Youngstown, were attacked by a mob. Red pepper was thrown in the sheriff's eyes and he was badly beaten.

The fire companies which attempted to check the flames in the East Youngstown business district were beaten off by the mob. Many shoes were fired but the firemen got back safely to Youngstown.

All of the injured persons were taken to hospitals here. Those most seriously injured are Mrs. Helen Toth, shot in neck, may die; George Getz, shot in right lung, may die; George Ofas, shot thru chest, may die; James Solick, shot thru back, may die.

Others less seriously injured are: Tom Z. Dzodanich, George Dopigek, Dave Inger, Joe Ritter, John Hayadudak, James Zepsozt, Dominick Cheditz.

Police Helplessly Outnumbered.

East Youngstown, which has a population of about 10,000, tonight was the scene of wild disorder. Police being helplessly outnumbered, made no effort to control the mobs which surged thru the streets and threatened to burn down the town. Most of the residents are foreigners.

The trouble started early in the evening when the day shift, among whom were said to be a number of strike-breakers, left work. A mob of more than 6,000 men and women formed at the entrance of the mills and hooted and jeered as the workers left the plant.

A number of workers were stoned and beaten. The private police force of the mills was lined up on a bridge across the river leading to the main works of the plant. Some one in the crowd threw a rock which struck one of the mill guards.

Immediately several of the guards drew their revolvers and fired to frighten the crowd.

Then the real trouble started. Revolvers were produced by men in the mob and answering shots were fired at the guards, who answered by firing into the crowd.

Men and women, wounded, fell amid the rain of bullets.

GARDNER ATTACKS GERMAN-AMERICANS

DRAWN HOT CRITICISM FROM THREE REPUBLICAN COLLEAGUES

Representatives Stafford and Longworth Denounce Statements as Unwarranted and Particularly Improper at This Time.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Hot criticism from three Republican colleagues was drawn by Representative Gardner of Massachusetts in the house today when he attacked German-Americans during a speech on proposals for a munitions embargo. Representatives Stafford of Wisconsin and Longworth of Ohio, whose districts are German-American centers denounced his statements as unwarranted and particularly improper at this time. Representative Cooper of Wisconsin joined in the criticism, but he had just had time to declare that Mr. Gardner's speech might be expected in the British parliament when a point of order cut short the discussion.

Later, Mr. Stafford apologized for what had been construed as a reflection on Mr. Gardner's Spanish war service after Representative Moore of Pennsylvania had produced the official record showing that the Massachusetts representative had been promoted for bravery. Mr. Gardner had left the house after speaking.

No Democrats joined in the argument, but they divided their applause between Mr. Gardner and his critics.

"Where here," asked Mr. Stafford when he took the floor, "in whose veins flows any Teutonic blood but that sympathizes with the Fatherland. But mere sympathy for the Fatherland does not conflict with loyalty to the Stars and Stripes. If Germany or Austro-Hungary should attempt by any deliberate act to invade our rights, I am sure those German-Americans who in times past have shown their loyalty, would do so again. Not however, as some of the noble volunteers from effete New England in the Spanish-American war did when they enlisted for that war, when, after they enlisted they had their mothers go and beg Governor Wolcott of Massachusetts, not to send them to the front."

Mr. Longworth termed Mr. Gardner's address "reckless and intemperate," and spoke of the munitions charge as a "wholly and absolutely false imputation."

"I regret that he made that speech," he said. "This is not the time to bring up questions that will fan the flame of hatred in this country."

"Amen," shouted Representative "Cyclone" Davis of Texas.

INSPECTORS QUESTION SURVIVORS OF SUNKEN STEAMER KANAWHA

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 7.—State and federal steamboat inspectors today questioned survivors of the steamer Kanawha which sank in the Ohio river ten miles below here Wednesday night.

The inspectors said no statement would be given out until their investigation had been completed. No additional bodies were recovered today, the list of known dead remaining at two and the missing at twelve. Plans had been made to search the interior of the wrecked boat, but failure of the river to recede sufficiently prevented this being done.

POLITICAL SITUATION IN GREAT BRITAIN IS CALMER

LONDON, Jan. 7.—The political situation today was calmer after the overwhelming vote obtained by the government in the house Thursday night on the first reading of its compulsion bill. The reassuring size of the government's majority in the lower house offset to a considerable degree the anti-conscription vote of the labor congress, which also was partly discounted by the attitude of such important labor leaders as Arthur Henderson, who resigned as president of the board of education and John Ward, George Nicolson and John Hodge, members of the house of commons.

The position of these men is that the vote of the labor congress was too hasty and ill considered to be regarded as reflecting the actual feeling of the labor men of the country.

JUDGE OLIVER SHIRAS DIES.

Dubuque, Ia., Jan. 7.—Judge Oliver P. Shiras, 83, retired from the federal bench of the northern district of Iowa, died today at Sea Breeze, Fla., the result of an operation for intestinal trouble.

Judge Shiras was a brother of former Chief Justice Shiras of the United States supreme court. The body will be brought to Dubuque.

STRIKERS BOMBARD FACTORY.

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Jan. 7.—More than 100 girls, striking for higher wages, gathered before the cigar factory of Samuel I. Davis and Company here today and bombarded the windows with iceles and similar missiles. Three of the strikers were arrested after they attacked the police. They were fined $5 each.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Jan. 7.—The police today instituted a search for Albert P. Miller, Jr., an investment broker, who is wanted on a charge of the embezzlement of $300,000 in funds entrusted to his care by clients.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 7.—The court of appeals today denied a motion for a reargument of the appeal of Hans Schmidt, the New York priest convicted of the murder of Anna Ammueller, and sentenced to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing next week.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Jan. 7.—People arrested for intoxication in Ottumwa in the future will be made to tell where they purchased their liquor. Police Judge R. K. Ramsell sentenced two men this morning to the county jail for thirty days for forgetting where they bought their whiskey.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Military training at the St. Charles School for Boys will soon receive new impetus with the arrival of a supply of army rifles and equipment from government stores.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—The 117 passengers who were forced to abandon the sinking Greek steamship Thessaloniki at sea, arrived here today on the steamship Patris of the same line and gave vivid descriptions of the hardships they suffered in the five weeks the Thessaloniki was battered by terrific gales.

DAVENPORT, Ia., Jan. 7.—Judge M. F. Donegan in the Scott county district court today signed the temporary injunction against the three Davenport saloonkeepers who started a contest against Iowa's dry laws.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 7.—Moderating temperatures prevailed today over this section of the southwest, following yesterday's snow storm. At several points in Kansas and western Missouri from one to six inches of snow fell.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Increases of 28 cents a ton on coal from Toluca, Ill., to points in Wisconsin, Iowa and Minnesota on the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railway were disapproved today by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

REMIREMONT, France, Jan. 7.—General Serret, who was in command of one of the divisions of the French army of the Vosges, is dead from recent wounds which made it necessary to amputate a leg.

OTTUMWA, Ia., Jan. 7.—The local ice harvest, which amounts to thousands of tons each winter, is threatened today by the stopping of the flow of broken ice that has filled the Des Moines river for the past few days.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Jan. 7.—Between six hundred and five thousand dollars in cash and internal revenue stamps, which may amount to $1,000,000, were stolen from the office of the collector of internal revenue in the old postoffice building last night. The vault was dynamited.

OSSINING, N. Y., Jan. 7.—Antonio Ponton, a Porto Rican student, was put to death in the electric chair this morning shortly after 6 o'clock for the murder of Miss Bessie Kromer, a Schenectady, N. Y., school teacher, with whom he was infatuated. Three shocks were administered before Ponton was pronounced dead.

KNAPP FUNERAL PROBABLY WILL BE HELD MONDAY IN ST. LOUIS

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 7.—The funeral of Charles W. Knapp, treasurer of the New York Times, member of the board of directors of the Associated Press and until two weeks ago president and publisher of the St. Louis Republic, who died at his desk in New York yesterday afternoon, will be held here probably Monday afternoon. This was announced tonight by David R. Francis, former governor of Missouri, who will have charge of the funeral arrangements.

Mr. Francis learned today that the body of Mr. Knapp was due to arrive in St. Louis six o'clock Sunday evening. It will be accompanied by Mrs. Knapp's widow, his daughter, Mrs. G. McConnell of Waterloo, Ia., Melville E. Stone, general manager of the Associated Press and Lewis Wiley of the New York Times. Mrs. J. M. Dorrance of Houston, Texas, a sister of Mr. Knapp will come to St. Louis to attend the funeral.

ADJUDGE KNOX INSANE.

Baton Rouge, La., Jan. 7.—Robert L. Knox, surveyor of customs for the Port of New Orleans, who on December 22nd, shot and killed two men in a railroad station here, was adjudged insane today and ordered confined in the criminal division of the state hospital.

The grand jury recently declined to indict Knox because of his mental condition.

REDUCE CLOSED AREA.

Washington, Jan. 7.—By orders of the department of agriculture effective tomorrow the closed area of the Illinois livestock quarantine against foot and mouth disease will be reduced to the township of Libertyville. Lake county newspapers the dispatch adds, regards this action as satisfying the Greek government.

GOV. DUNNE CALLS SPECIAL SESSION

Opens Practically All State
Primary and Election
Laws for Revision

TO CONVENE TUESDAY

Executive is Told Desired
Amendments Would Save Approximately $1,500,000

SEEK ROAD LAW AMENDMENTS

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Practically all of the state election and primary laws were opened up for amendment and revision in the formal call which Governor Edward P. Dunne issued today for a second extraordinary session of the Illinois legislature to convene next Tuesday noon at Springfield.

Would Combine Election Days.

Amendments are being sought to these laws whereby needless registration days in Chicago can be eliminated and primary and election days all over the state can be combined. By making the desired amendments, Governor Dunne was told that Chicago could be saved $750,000 annually and that the total saving to the state would amount to approximately $1,500,000.

While the call was being prepared it was reported that some Chicago Democratic politicians had informed the governor that they favor placing the county officers on a ballot separate from the national and state tickets at the election next fall. These politicians were reported as fearing that President Wilson's name because of his foreign policy, would be a detriment rather than a help at the head of a ballot in Chicago where the German population is large.

Governor Dunne's call would permit the legislature to split the ballot in this manner. However, Governor Dunne declared this idea should not be credited to him. He said it had been suggested to him after he had decided to include the election law in his call.

Items Included in Call.

Besides the primary and election laws, these items were included in the call:

Additional appropriation for reimbursement of farmers for losses caused by the foot and mouth disease.

State regulation of the sale of serum and virus to prevent the spread of hog cholera.

Additional appropriation for the state free employment bureau.

Road law amendment to permit counties to issue bonds for good roads and to use the annual road fund received from the state for the retirement of such bonds.

Recreation of the state centennial commission by statute.

Amendment of the law to permit members of the state pension commission to take office immediately instead of waiting until July 1st, 1916.

Validation of a recent $2,000,000 good road bond issue in Cook county.

An appropriation to pay the salary of the secretary of the state civil service commission.

Legislature Refused to Act.

Governor Dunne included the primary law in the call for the first special session, held in November, but the legislature refused to act. The proposition to permit counties to issue road bonds also was included in the first call and was not acted upon.

The proposed state regulation of the sale of serum and virus to prevent the spread of hog cholera was suggested by Dr. E. O. Dyson, state veterinarian.

Charges were made at the last session of the legislature that the recent outbreak of foot and mouth disease among the cattle of the state has been caused by infected virus and serum manufactured and sold in Illinois.

The special session will be asked to pay claims against the state amounting to more than $200,000 which were caused by the foot and mouth disease.

The disease already has cost the state $1,250,000, appropriated by the legislature last winter.

Governor Dunne declared it is not the intention of the state to issue $100,000,000 good road bonds, as had been reported, but only to change the law so counties may issue bonds and redeem them with money from the state aid fund.

NORMAL DEFEATS LINCOLN.

Bloomington, Ill., Jan. 7.—Normal University basketball team this afternoon defeated Lincoln College team, 35 to 6.

PRICE SHUDDERS AT SIGHT OF WIFE'S SKULL

EXPERTS DECLARE DEATH APPAR-ENTLY DUE TO BLOWS ON HEAD

Dozen Witnesses Testify in Support of Charge That Defendant Hurled His Third Wife From a Cliff and Then Crushed Her Skull.

Minneapolis, Minn., Jan. 7.—Fredrick T. Price, a local business man, shuddered today as the whitened skull of his wife, for whose murder he is on trial in district court, was placed upon a table before him while medical experts testified that the injuries resulting in death could not have been caused by a fall from the East River road cliff. They declared that death apparently was due to blows on the head.

When court adjourned tonight until Monday, a dozen witnesses had testified in support of the state's charge that Price hurled his third wife from a cliff, on the night of November 28th, 1914, and then went below and crushed her skull, in the hope of inheriting $10,000 which, it is said, was given her by her father the day before her death. The state expects to complete its case next Tuesday with the testimony of Charles D. Etchison, who, after his arrest on a joint indictment with Price, said that Price killed his wife and gave him $4,700 for his silence, and Dr. W. P. Robertson, professor of pathology at the University of Minnesota, who recently conducted an autopsy on the exhumed body of Mrs. Price, testified, after Judge Daniel Fish had overruled objections of the defense that the skull of Mrs. Price could not have been crushed by the fall without the neck being broken.

"In my opinion," he said, "the skull was caved-in by a blunt instrument."

At this point the prosecutor produced a rock selected recently at the foot of the cliff by Etchison as similar to the rock he charged Price with using.

"The injuries could have been caused by a rock of that kind," said the expert after a brief examination. Other physicians gave similar testimony.

For the first time since his arrest Price, who has been commonly referred to as the "Iron man" appeared very nervous and during parts of the testimony winced under the cold stares of gaily clad women who comprised a large part of the spectators. He frankly admitted that the strain of the trial was telling on him.

ADMIRAL BLUE STATES NAVY HAS BEEN AMERICANIZED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Nearly 95.5 per cent of the enlisted men in the navy are citizens of the United States and the rest are mostly Filipinos or from the country's other insular possessions.

A letter from Rear-Admiral Victor Blue, chief of the bureau of navigation, announcing this fact, was read today in the senate by request of Senator Tillman, who had forwarded the admiral a warning he had received against permitting foreigners to enlist in the navy and merchant marine.

"The navy has been Americanized," Admiral Blue wrote, "by getting young men from the farms and from occupations not connected with the sea."

TWO COMMUNICATIONS FROM GERMANY REACH UNITED STATES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Two communications from Germany reached the United States today—one containing a proposal to pay an indemnity for the Americans lost in the Lusitania disaster, which may bring negotiations on that subject to a conclusion, and the other conveying assurances that German submarine commanders operating in the Mediterranean would not torpedo non-combatant ships of any character without warning them and according safety to their passengers and crews.

The communications were delivered to Secretary Lansing by Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador. The secretary immediately sent them to President Wilson.

Official Washington tonight considered that America and Germany at least were near a final agreement regarding the conduct of submarine warfare.

LARGE BUILDING BURNS.

Cincinnati, Jan. 7.—The large three story depot and office building of the Adams Express Company, at the northwest corner of Front and Butler streets, this city, was destroyed by fire early today. The loss is estimated at $200,000. Crossed electric wires caused the fire.

RELEASE TEUTONIC CONSULS.

Paris, Jan. 7.—A despatch to the Havas Agency from Athens under date of January 6th, says that Jean Guillemin, the French minister to Greece has announced that the consuls of the Teutonic allies arrested at Saloniki have been released. Greek newspapers the despatch adds, regards this action as satisfying the Greek government.

RUSSIANS MAKE FIERCE ATTACKS

Concentrate 400 Guns On Austrian Positions for Fifty Hours

POSITION IS CRITICAL

Fighting at Czernowitz is of Most Bitter Character, Reports from Both Sides State

BRITISH LOSE SUBMARINE

LONDON, Jan. 7.—Some idea of the determined nature of the Russian blow on the Bessarabian front is conveyed by Petrograd dispatches today which state that the Russians for fifty hours concentrated 400 guns on the Austrians' positions at Czernowitz as a preparation for an infantry attack. The Russian communications do not claim that Czernowitz has fallen but dispatches from German sources admit the Teutonic position there is critical.

Fighting of Most Bitter Character.

It is not yet clear whether the Russian operations in this theater herald a big general offensive movement of all the Russian armies from the Baltic to the Roumanian border, or merely indicate a diversion of unparalleled magnitude and fierceness designed to weaken the pressure of the central powers in the Balkans and incidentally on the Italian front. The fighting has been of the most bitter character, according to both the Austrian and Russian reports. Few prisoners are being taken and the infantry engagements are largely in the nature of hand to hand encounters. All of the Russian operations thus far revealed are being pressed along the railway lines, which simplify the problems of the winter supply of food, ammunition and fuel. The situation along other fronts is comparatively quiet.

British Lose Submarine.

The loss of a British submarine by a mischance of navigation off the Dutch coast makes a total of eleven British submarines lost since the beginning of the war. A majority of these, however, have been of the smaller types.

An echo of General Sir Ian Hamilton's review of the Dardanelles operations is found in a report published today that General Sir Frederick Stopford, who was recalled on account of his conduct in Syria operations, has demanded an inquiry by the war office into the whole circumstances of the landing of troops in the Dardanelles.

In connection with the submarine activity in the Mediterranean Sea an Athens dispatch notes that alarm is felt there owing to the fact that none of the nine ships laden with grain purchased in America either has arrived or been signalled.

FOULKES TESTIFIES AT TRIAL OF MISS MILLER AND BROTHER

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—Thomas Foulkes testified today in the second trial of Miss Lorraine Miller and her brother, Attorney J. Marion Miller of his courtship of Miss Miller, which he claims resulted in the loss of $11,312 and two farms valued at $10,000.

Foulkes, who is 63 years old, swore that he has lost all his possessions and is now working on his brother's farm near Danbury, Iowa, as a common hand. He will finish his testimony on Monday.

At the first trial of the lawyer and his sister they were found guilty of swindling the once prosperous farmer but were granted a new trial.

TAFT ACTS AS GODFATHER.

Cincinnati, Jan. 7.—Former President William H. Taft today acted as Godfather at the christening of his six months old grandson, William Howard Taft, III, son of Robert Taft.

For President

L. Y. SHERMAN.

For Governor

ANDREW RUSSEL.

Governor Lister of Washington is receiving congratulations because of the second anniversary of the system of handling criminals that he inaugurated. So great is the governor's belief in the system that he has nine convicts from the Walla Walla penitentiary as servants at the executive mansion. It is to be hoped that the experiment will continue to be successful and not end as disastrously as has been known in two instances in Illinois the past year, when hardened convicts were shown too much leniency and given too much freedom.

Kansas is always breaking into the newspaper columns because of the progressive spirit of its citizenship. Attention has recently been focused on statistics from that state showing the consideration accorded to women. There are 159 women holding office in Kansas, and more than half of the counties have women superintendents of public instruction. The list of office holders includes four probate judges, 21 clerks of district courts, and 23 registrars of deeds.

School Census Facts.

The school census for Illinois in 1915 shows 2,433,333 persons under the age of 21 years. Of these, 1,654,879 were between the ages of 6 and 21 years. This indicates that there were 778,963 children under 6 years of age. There were enrolled in the public and private schools, 1,263,046 for the year 1915, or 76.6 per cent of all persons between 6 and 21 years of age. If we knew how many persons between these age limits were in our institutions for defectives, or criminals, as well as those who have entered higher institutions of learning before they were 21 years of age, we should find that there was only a surprisingly small percentage of our population between the ages of 6 and 21 not accounted for.

Wet vs. Dry in Decatur.

Decatur is once more facing a wet and dry fight, as petitions are now in circulation to make it possible for the question to be placed upon a ballot at an election to be held in the spring. The city voted dry some years ago and then fell from the water wagon for a period of two years, when once more the saloons were voted out. While Decatur is something of an industrial city, it also boasts of its educational atmosphere, and the chances are that with women voting that the saloon interests will be given a severe drubbing. It will be for the best interest of all concerned if there is a very decisive vote one way or the other, for to have the question coming up every two years must have an unsettling effect upon the community.

Significant Comment.

Gov. Dunne's expected call for an extraordinary session of the Illinois legislature was issued Friday. The most important subjects to be considered in accordance with the call are primary and election laws. Gov. Dunne has recommended the combining of certain election days in order to save expense to the state and annoyance to candidates.

An interesting piece of political gossip came with the call because certain Democrats in Chicago favor having county officers on a separate ballot from the national and state ticket next November, giving as their reason the theory that the name of President Wilson at the head of the ticket might prove a damage instead of a blessing to Democratic office seekers. Their freely expressed opinion is that there is danger in being on the same ticket with President Wilson, whose foreign policy has aroused the opposition of a great body of Chicago citizens, many of them Germans.

Two War Possibilities.

Still another view of the after effects of the war was given in an address by Senator Hamilton Lewis the other day. With customarily picturesque language the senator told of the two conditions which may result from the war. As he sees it, unless laws are passed abroad to prohibit their coming, vast hordes of Europeans will seek new homes in the United States and thus may come an excess of labor and lower wage scales. If on the other hand, the European nations encourage their citizens to remain in their native lands by outlining a system of rehabilitation and making it clear that the country will be rebuilt and new rights accorded to citizens, then will come a great demand upon the United States for furnishing the machinery and the supplies for the work of rehabilitation and thus great business activity will continue here.

Wilson Candidate for Re-Election.

While Secretary Tumulty denies that he authorized the use of President Wilson's name on the Michigan primary ballot, "undeniable authority" is given for the statement that the president has authorized the use of his name. This action gives a direct answer to the question as to whether or not President Wilson will be a candidate to succeed himself. Evidently the president believes that the needs of his country and party are such that he is justified in departing from the Democratic platform declaration at Baltimore, when one term for the president was advocated. It was a six-year term the Democrats talked about and so the president has another reason for his present stand on the question, which is at variance with his former declaration on the same subject.

Cementing Friendship.

When the delegation of Illinoisans presents to Louisiana and New Orleans the famous battle flag of General Andrew Jackson, still another advance will be made toward a thorough understanding between the north and south. Some years ago women from New Orleans discovered the flag among the treasures in Memorial hall at Springfield and subsequently made a request for its return. By act of the legislature, authority to return the flag was granted. Year by year such acts as this taken by the various states have served to wear away the ill-feeling generated by the war of the rebellion, and more and more this country is coming to that desirable condition with no north, no south, no east, no west, but one united country.

SELFISHNESS

Jim Kicksaw has a touring car, in which he journeys near and far. There's room for seven in the same, and Jim might bring to many a dame who seldom has a chance to ride, pure happiness ten cubits wide. But Jim would rather ride alone, than take some poor old gent or crone. He'd take a banker or some skate who's made a pile in real estate; he'd load his car with daisies fair, and still insist there's room to spare. He'd gladly take a joyous crew, to whom such rides are nothing new. But there are men with spavined limbs, and poor old dames with worn-out gowns; and crippled kids who sit and sign, as gorgeous cars go whizzing by; and mothers, tired until their hearts just yearn for rides in choo-choo carts; and maiden aunts who'd trade their hair for three long breaths of country air. But these will never ride with Jim; they're poor, and don't appeal to Jim; the men don't wear their whiskers straight, the women's hats are out of date, the kids have seedy pinafores, from rolling round on unwashed floors. There's nothing in it, any way; you haul the poor for half a day, and all you get for it is thanks; they have no assets in the banks.

country and the European nations caused by the war have also been strong factors in cementing the various parts of this country as never before and unifying the citizenship.

Judge Gary's Warning Note.

One of the most interesting comments on business conditions which are acknowledged to be generally excellent, was made by Judge Gary of the steel corporation recently. Judge Gary, while taking an optimistic view of the general business conditions, was insistent that the public should guard against inflation in business, which he said was very likely to happen because of present industrial activity occasioned mainly by the war. Following the day of peace, unless a conservative period prevails now, Judge Gary sees a whole lot of trouble and depression ahead.

There is logic and common sense in his appeal, for he shows the dangers of inflation and overconfidence based upon the splendid crops and abnormal business activity, and anyone who makes the slightest investigation can see that a heavy per cent of this activity has a war cause and with the coming of peace there would certainly come also a great slump in business. Judge Gary's opinion is that the end of the war will come this year, and he bases it on the belief that the nations engaged in the conflict are so thoroughly exhausted in soldiery and finance and have made comparatively few advances. In other words, he believes that the combatants have nearly worn themselves out.

Better Service Demanded.

Stirred by the testimony of Senator Kent Keller of Iowa and Senator E. S. Smith of Springfield, that the $10,000 appropriation for Chicago senate offices and some others were illegal, and further that resolutions providing for these funds were bogus, President John H. Walker of the State Federation of Labor has issued a statement. In it he calls upon members of that body to use their best efforts to see to it that men are elected to the legislature whose standing and character will give assurance of an honest administering of the state's business. The facts brought out by the Ferguson suits, showing the carelessness and irregularity which has characterized many legislative acts and the gross extravagance which has prevailed, has aroused not only the indignation of President Walker but of thousands of other citizens of Illinois, and it is to be hoped from this aroused sentiment that a higher grade of public service will be demanded.

MEREDOSIA TELEPHONE CO.
HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

Elects Two New Directors and Declares a Fifteen Percent Dividend—Miss Bertha Geiss Resigns as Operator.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Farmers and Merchant's Telephone company of Meredosia was held Friday in Meredosia. Two new directors were elected, Joseph Smith and H. L. Depe. The other candidates were Clyde McAllister and Charles Thomason. There was only one vote difference between Mr. Depe and Mr. McAllister. The other directors are L. F. Berger, W. D. Meier, Riley Steinberg, Charles Schlicker and J. W. Duvandack.

The company declared the large dividend of fifteen per cent. During the past year the company has needed but little repairs on the switch board and the experts, in other lines was not so great, which allowed the liberal dividend.

The directors intended to hold their meeting immediately after the stockholders business session but the hour was late and a adjournment was taken. The directors will hold their meeting Wednesday, December 12.

C. D. Kappel, who has been president for the company for the past five, and whose term expires this year, will tender his resignation, on account of ill health. Mr. Kappel has been taking treatment here but it now at his home.

The company is to lose the services of Mrs. Bertha Geiss, who has been the efficient operator for the past five years. Her resignation is to take effect February first. Her successor will be appointed at the meeting of the directors next week, at which time also they held their annual election of officers.

Leahy.

Mrs. Margaret Hennessey has received word of the death of her daughter, Mrs. James Leahy, who passed away Thursday afternoon at two o'clock at her late home in East St. Louis. Mrs. Leahy was visiting with relatives here during the Christmas holidays. She went home a week ago and two days after arriving took down with pneumonia.

Mrs. Leahy was about 40 years of age and had spent most of her life in Jacksonville except the past fourteen years, since her marriage. She leaves her husband and a daughter, Josephine, six years of age; her mother, and two brothers, Thomas and James Hennessey, both residents of Jacksonville.

The remains arrived in the city last night over the Alton and were taken to the home of her mother, 827 North East street. Funeral ar-

IRIS JAN BIBLE SCHOOL OF MANCHESTER ELECTS OFFICERS

Members Elected for Ensuing Year—Many Attend Masonic Meeting—Personal Items.

The annual election of officers was in the Christian Bible School last Sunday, and the following persons were elected, and also as teachers for the year 1916:

Superintendent—Miss Mable Blevins.

Asst. Supt.—C. L. Letze.

Missionary Supt.—Mrs. Carrie Brown.

Secretary—Miss Hildreth Howard.

Treasurer—Mrs. R. H. Walton.

Organist—Mrs. Carrie Lawson.

Librarian—Master Russell Chapman.

This school has had a fine attendance for the past year, and starts out with bright prospects for the year 1916.

Attend Lodge Meeting.

Among those who attended the Masonic lodge at Woodson on Thursday afternoon and evening were C. S. Heaton, H. A. Langdon, L. C. Funk, Glen Funk, Roy Curtis, R. H. Walton, J. C. Akers, C. D. Chapman, F. G. McPherson, Frank Roe, Harry Gollier, and G. D. Barnes.

The lodge was opened up in due form at two o'clock in the afternoon for work in the third degree, two candidates being initiated. Finishing up about the hour of six o'clock p. m. Adjourning for about three-fourths of an hour for refreshments the lodge was then called to order for the purpose of installing the newly elected officers for the Masonic year 1916. At the close of the installation a few short talks were given by a number of the brethren which was much appreciated. The afternoon and evening will long be remembered by those who had the pleasure of being there. (This is Murrayville lodge No. 432, but they meet at Woodson.)

MATRIMONIAL

Cox-Bonno.

Word has been received in the city of the marriage of Hardin Cox of this city to Miss Viola Bonno of Jerseyville. The ceremony was said by the Rev. Father Hogan in East St. Louis. Mr. Cox in a letter to a friend here said that he was at present in Alton. The groom is the son of Jerry Cox of this city and is well known to Jacksonville people. The bride is resident of Jerseyville and her father is prominent in the horse business and at the present time has a large contract to supply one of the European nations with horses.

Wilson-Camp.

Louis Wilson and Miss Mary Ellen Camp, both of Arnold, were united in marriage by Justice W. T. Dyer at his office in West State street at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon. The groom is white and the bride is a mulatto.

When Wilson went to the county clerk's office to secure the license he gave the girl's age as 19 years. Only the father of the girl accompanied Wilson on this errand. When Justice Dyer had performed the marriage ceremony and started to fill out the back of the marriage certificate the girl gave her age as 13 years.

While her parents were with her and witnessed the ceremony, Wilson violated the law in giving the girl's age as 19 years. Unless someone makes a complaint State's Attorney Tilton cannot do anything in the matter, for someone must first father the complaint.

Milburn-Rankin.

Friends in Jacksonville have received word of the marriage of Miss Lora Rankin, a graduate of the nurse's training school of Passavant hospital, and Oscar Milburn of Rockford. Miss Rankin was graduated from the hospital with the class of 1911 and has since made Rockford her home. She was reared in Bluffs and has many friends in that community as well as in Jacksonville. The ceremony took place at 1 o'clock Saturday forenoon, Jan. 1, and Mr. and Mrs. Milburn left soon thereafter for Chicago. From that city they went to Bluffs for a short visit and from there expected to go to Rockford to make their home. Mr. Milburn is by occupation a contractor.

NEW HAVEN JURY IS LOCKED UP WITHOUT REACHING VERDICT

Case is Submitted to Jurors Shortly Before 1:30 Friday Afternoon.

New York, Jan. 7.—The jury in the case of the eleven former directors of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad, charged with criminal violation of the Sherman law, was locked up for the night at 11:35 p. m., no verdict having been reached.

The case was submitted to the jurors for decision shortly before 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon and it was reported to be the purpose of the court if they failed to reach a verdict before 11 p. m. to lock them up for the night at an uptown hotel.

All of the defendants except William Rockefeller, who was ill, were present in the court room to receive the verdict. They faced the possibility of jail sentences of a year should the case go against them.

The acquisition of the Boston & Maine was one of the phases of the case upon which Judge Hunt in his charge to the jury today laid special stress. He held that the question was whether the New Haven and the Boston & Maine were in substantial competition.

Judge Hunt's charge to the jury was thought by many in the court room to be favorable to the defendants.

afternoon were that the plant of the DuPont Powder company there had been destroyed by an explosion of nitroglycerin. Overheated boilers were said to have caused the explosion. Persons in Stoy were hurt by flying glass and a panic was caused in the school at Robinson, Ill., but no one was seriously hurt. Two men had just left the plant.

FRANK MORAN KNOCKS OUT JIM COFFEY IN NINTH ROUND

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Frank Moran of Pittsburgh knocked out Jim Coffey the Dublin Giant in the ninth round of their ten round match at Madison Square Garden tonight.

This was Moran's second victory over Coffey in twelve weeks, the first fight ending in three rounds. Tonight, however, Coffey showed much improvement and it was not until the eighth round that Moran's terrific smashes showed any effect.

Coffey was knocked down four times in the ninth round in each instance remaining on the mat for nine seconds. The last time Moran almost drove him thru the ropes but he managed to get up within the time. His seconds, realizing that he was hopelessly beaten, threw a sponge into the ring to avoid a complete knockout.

THREE KILLED; SCORE WOUNDED IN FIGHTING

Applies Torch to Buildings.

Finally the crowd fell back and vented its fury by applying the torch to buildings in the neighborhood. The first place fired was the two-story office building of the sheet and case plant. While the flames were roaring into the air the torch was applied to another building, a small one-story store house.

Not satisfied with this exhibition of its fury the mob turned to the business district. Part of the mob entered a saloon and after looting the place and distributing the liquor among the frantic foreigners in the crowd, set fire to the place. When the flames had spread to the Kaufman Brothers clothing store and Michael Monashan's jewelry store, the whole crowd took a hand in the looting. Clothing and jewelry were taken from the stores and distributed thru the crowd.

Firemen summoned from Youngstown arrived on the scene, but before they could get the hose connected with the hydrants the crowd drove the fire fighters away.

Many shots were fired and the firemen drove off with their apparatus amid a hail of stones.

By this time the flames had communicated to the three-story building occupied by Renner's store and threatened to sweep thru the entire business section. The infuriated crowd surged thru the streets and tarant was made to burn the entire town. All available guards were marshalled by the sheet and tube company and by other mills in the suburb in an effort to prevent destruction of their property.

Plant Will Remain Closed. "The plant will remain closed until such time as the authorities see fit to provide protection to those employees who are willing and anxious to work but are prevented from doing so by mobs formed from the ranks of those who have quite the employ of the company," said President James A. Campbell, of the Youngstown Sheet & Tube company. He refused to give out any statement regarding the rioting tonight.

The outbreak tonight did not come as a surprise to the residents of East Youngstown. All day the entrance to the steel mills were watched by crowds armed with heavy clubs, knives and revolvers and men who attempted to enter the plants were driven away by threats of violence.

As the day advanced, the mob grew more aggressive, hurling stones and clubs at workmen. Lunch baskets were taken and destroyed. Street cars were stopped and workmen removed forcibly. Cars were bombarded with stones and windows were broken when motorists failed to stop at the command of mob leaders. Frederick Fletcher, a newspaperman was mistaken for a workman and attacked. He was knocked down.

Mayor Swears in Deputies. Fifty rioters were arrested by the police and placed in the East Youngstown jail. When the police were compelled to leave the jail in order to patrol the fire zone, about 100 strikers congregated about the place and threatened to release the men. Mayor W. H. Cunningham at once swore in fifty deputies and ordered them to remain on duty at the jail thruout the night.

Mrs. Toth and an unidentified woman were standing near the plant, with scores of women and children when the riot started. Mrs. Toth was within a few feet of her home and was watching her two children play nearby here she fell unconscious with two bullet wounds in her body. She was rushed to a hospital where it was said her condition is critical. The unidentified woman also was wounded. Physicians said she had only a slight chance to recover.

Mayor Carroll Thornton issued orders to proprietors of saloons to close their bars at the regular closing hour tonight and not to open them tomorrow. He said he feared the strikers would come to Youngstown from the East Side and cause trouble. The saloons here will be closed indefinitely.

Two Regiments on Way. Columbus, O., Jan. 7.—Two regiments of the Ohio National Guard comprising more than 1500 men tonight were on their way to Youngstown to assist local authorities there in quelling rioting which broke out late today in connection with the strike of steel workers in that city. Another regiment—the Fourth Infantry—was mobilizing in this city.

Before the day break tomorrow it was expected that 2,600 guardsmen, under command of Brigadier General John C. Speaks, of Columbus, will be in Youngstown ready for duty. These will include the Fourth Regiment under command of Col. J. L. Barger, which received orders at midnight to proceed as soon as mobilization was complete.

The two regiments which left their armories for Youngstown tonight are the Fifth with headquarters at Cleveland, Col. Charles Zimmerman commanding and the Eighth with headquarters at Bucyrus, Col. E. Volzath commanding.

Shortly before 5 o'clock, Governor Willis received an urgent request for troops from Sheriff J. C. Umstead, of Mahoning county. This was followed by a report from General Speaks, who had been sent to Youngstown as a representative of the governor, that the situation was grave and that the troops would be necessary to assist the local authorities in maintaining order.

The battalion of engineers Ohio National Guard, the four companies of which have headquarters in Cleveland also were ordered to Youngstown.

FORD PEACE EXPEDITION WILL REACH THE HAGUE THIS MORNING

Arrangements are Completed to Welcome Delegates at the Railway Station.

The Hague, via London, Jan. 7.—Two hundred and ten members of the Ford peace expedition will reach the Hague at 11 o'clock Saturday morning.

Arrangements were completed today by a local committee to welcome them at the railway station and conduct them to various hotels. The arrangements so far made for the party after reaching here include public meetings on Monday and Tuesday in the grand hall in the Zoological Gardens. No restrictions have been placed by the authorities upon their proceedings, as was the case in Denmark. The attitude of the Dutch authorities toward the party may be described as benevolently passive.

The official standpoint as laid down to the Associated Press correspondent today by high ministerial authority is that Holland is a free country and Dutch law guarantees the right of assembly without interference, unless public order or morality is offended. Hence the government does not see the necessity of interfering with public speeches by members of the Ford party in favor of peace. If they help toward that end so much the better, altho the official world is not sanguine in this respect.

SCOTT WILL BE GIVEN HEARING BEFORE STATE BOARD OF PARDONS

Docket of Pardon Board is Made Public—Hearing is to be Held on January 11.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 7.—Elston Scott, the Jackson county negro under sentence of death for the murder of his sister-in-law and who has been reprieved three times by Governor Dunne, will be given a hearing before the state board of pardons here on January 11. This became known today when the pardon board docket was made public.

Governor Dunne, who is opposed to capital punishment, in Scott's case has expressed himself as convinced that the man was guilty of premeditated murder. Scott had a quarrel with his wife. His sister-in-law, according to evidence introduced at the trial, interfered. Scott went out and borrowed a shot gun, followed the woman to her home and then shot and killed her.

Scott's most recent reprieve expires January 19 and it is understood that it is the intention of the governor to continue to reprieve the man until assured by Sheriff White of Jackson county that the execution will be conducted in the presence of as few witnesses as possible. The public execution of Joe Deberry, another negro, caused the governor to determine to prevent another such execution in Illinois.

The application for a hearing before the board of pardons was made by the wife of Attorney Barnett, a negro and former assistant state's attorney of Cook county. Barnett defended "Chicken" Joe Campbell, recently convicted of the murder of Mrs. Mazie Odette Allen, wife of former Warden Allen of the penitentiary at Joliet.

WALLER IS RE-ELECTED HEAD OF STATE FEDERATION OF LABOR

Complete Returns From Referendum Election Are Made Public.

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 7.—John H. Waller of Danville, was re-elected president and Victor A. Olander of Chicago was re-elected secretary-treasurer of the Illinois State Federation of Labor, according to complete returns from the referendum election of December 14th, made public her tonight. Both were without opposition.

Robert G. Fitchie of Chicago was elected first vice-president to succeed L. A. Allton of Peoria who was not a candidate for re-election. John M. Irish of Peoria was re-named second vice-president, and Michael J. Whalen of East St. Louis was re-elected third vice-president.

For membership on the executive board, Albert Vincent of Virden defeated James C. Kinsley of Rock Island. The other five members of the board, all re-elected, are Thomas Kelly of Streator, Joseph W. Morton of Chicago, George B. Jenkins of Urbana and James F. Daughton of Springfield and Al Towers of Belleville.

J. A. Kahn of Chicago, Tilden Bosarth of Staunton and William Jampel of Belleville constitute the new board of auditors.

Rud Farnetti of Oglesby, Agnes Johnson of Chicago and Charles Wright of Decatur were elected tellers.

ONE SERIOUSLY INJURED.

Chicago, Jan. 7.—With one exception, all of the thirty passengers injured and burned in the wreck of an interurban car on the Chicago and Milwaukee Electric Railway near Wilmette, a suburb, last night, are expected to recover, say attending physicians.

A man, whose identity has not been established, and who has not regained consciousness, is not expected to live, the physicians said.

TO FOUND ART SCHOOL FOR YOUNG WOMEN.

Troy, N. Y., Jan. 7.—It was announced here tonight that Mrs. Russell Sage has decided to found a department of the Emma Willard School in Troy for the purpose of teaching domestic and industrial arts to young women. The school is to be known as the Russell Sage School of Practical Art, and for its maintenance Mrs. Sage has appropriated $250,000.

CORONER HOLDS KELLER TO AWAIT ACTION OF GRAND JURY

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 7.—Edward Keller, was today held by the coroner to await the action of the grand jury on the charge of murdering his former business associate Daniel J. McNichol, whose body was discovered in a trunk in the cellar of an abandoned building formerly occupied by Keller.

McNichol's death, according to the testimony of the coroner's physician at the inquest today, was caused by a bullet fired into the back of his neck and which penetrated his brain. McNichol disappeared on March 30th, 1914, but the body was not discovered until Dec. 15th, 1915, when workmen excavating the cellar found the trunk and its contents.

TWO AMERICANS TRACE THE "RIVER OF DOUBT" TO ITS SOURCE

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 7.—The "River of Doubt," renamed Rio Theodore, after Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, who reported he located it in South America, has been traced to its source in the Cordillera Goral (Andes) mountains by two Americans, George and Stephen Gester of Berkeley, Cal., engineers for the Standard Oil company, according to their stories told here today upon their return from South America.

They described it as getting supply from glaciers. The engineers reached the headwaters of the river by crossing the Andes with pack mules from Lima, Peru. They had with them, they said, data on Colonel Roosevelt's report with which to check their observations.

SUIT FILED AGAINST GRAVEL SPRINGS COMPANY

Fred Walbaum of Ashland Brings Foreclosure Proceedings on Notes for $25,000—Company Organized Fifteen Years Ago.

Attorney William E. Stone of Mason City Friday filed suit in circuit court against the Gravel Springs Water company in behalf of Fred Walbaum of Ashland for notes in the sum of $25,000. The bill is in the nature of the foreclosure of a trust deed and for relief to Fred Walbaum and William G. Goebel is trustee in the suit.

April 1st, 1915 the Gravel Springs Water company by Henry Oakes, its president and A. B. Williamson, secretary, negotiated notes to the number of thirty to carry on the business of the company. Twenty of these notes were for $1,000 each and ten notes were for $500 each. The notes fall due at different periods and some matured October 1, 1915. At the time the notes were issued William G. Goebel was made trustee. When the company failed to pay the first notes to mature Mr. Walbaum proceeded to take the necessary steps for foreclosure.

The Gravel Springs Water company was organized by Julius and Daniel Seligman probably fifteen years ago. They began business in a small way and conducted it for several years, hauling the water from the spring northwest of the city. As the business grew this method proved too slow and also too costly. The firm then went to the city council and asked permission to lay a pipe line in the city. The permission was granted and the company secured its present quarters. The plant is located just north of the Wabash tracks near the junction and includes several buildings. The company had a switch laid to the plant and also began the manufacture of ginger ale, soda and other soft drinks in addition to the sale of the natural water.

Tank cars were provided for the shipment of water to other cities. Agencies were established in Chicago, St. Louis, Springfield and many other cities. Today Gravel Springs drinking water is known all over the country. There are many users of the water in Jacksonville.

Workmen were at work Friday at the J. N. Ward building on the south side of the square fitting the rear part for the use of Hood & Larson. As previously mentioned the back part will be used as a dining room by the Inn and the front part will be converted into a book store for Mrs. Mae Black.

The store room was recently vacated by L. C. & R. E. Henry.

IS ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF FALSE PRETENSES

E. G. Schumaker Has Preliminary Hearing Before Squire Dyer—St. Louis Firm Swears Out Warrant.

E. G. Schumaker was arrested Friday morning by Officer Baker on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. The warrant was sworn out before Justice Dyer by M. W. Nelson representing the Southwestern Sales company of St. Louis.

Schumaker formerly operated a barber shop under the jewelry store of Charles Price on East State street. Recently he gave up the business. The Southwestern Sales company manufacture carbon removers and a metal polish. Schumaker it is said went to St. Louis and signed a contract with the company to represent them. At the time he is said to have given his place of residence as Springfield.

When he returned he sent in orders to send goods to William E. McCurley of Woodson, J. A. Moss of Chapin and R. C. Day. The goods were duly shipped and Mr. Moss sent the firm a letter saying he had never ordered the goods. In the meantime Schumaker had sent a check for $5 on the Farmers State Bank & Trust company. The check was returned, marked, "account closed". Schumaker had secured commissions to the amount of $30. The company began an investigation which resulted in Schumaker's arrest.

Schumaker was taken before Justice Dyer and was placed under bond in the sum of $200 for his appearance Saturday, Jan. 15, 1916. Jas. Rabbit signed the bond and Schumaker was released.

WILLOW CREEK DRAINAGE DISTRICT CASE

The attorneys for the commissioners in the Willow Creek Drainage case completed their arguments Friday. John J. Reeve was the last attorney to speak for the commissioners and Judge Deitrick made the last argument for the objectors. Mr. Reeve finished his argument shortly after dinner. The court gave the jury its instructions and the case was completed at 2:30 o'clock. The jury has arranged to go to Meredosia Tuesday and view the district and probably will render a verdict the latter part of next week.

GETTING ROOM IN SHAPE.

Joseph DeGouveia with his force of men is rapidly getting the Jacksonville National Bank building into shape for the use of the Jacksonville Railway & Light company and before long he will have it fully transformed into a place very suitable for the new occupants who will have a place in which they can take much pride and comfort.

Some Topics of the Farm

USE OF WASTE GRAINS NEEDED FOR BEST POULTRY PROFITS

Prof. W. A. Lippincott in Address At Missouri University Points To Possibilities—One Half All Eggs Produced in Four Months Time.

Columbia, Mo., Jan. 7.—Opportunities in the poultry business today lie, not in the production of fancy birds, nor in the raising of poultry which is fed grain at market prices, but rather in the production of birds raised largely on waste grain, which has no market value. W. A. Lippincott, professor of poultry husbandry at the Kansas State Agricultural College asserted in an address at the College of Agriculture of the University of Missouri here today.

In his address he urged community breeding and the establishment of more cold storage plants, pointing out that they serve to equalize prices. "Probably not much more than 15 per cent of the eggs produced in this country find their way into cold storage, yet this number is sufficient to have marked effect upon the prevailing price levels during the season of production and non-production," he said. "It is a fact, not as clearly recognized as it should be by other producers or consumers, that eggs are a seasonable product."

Four Months for Eggs. "Half the egg crop is produced in March, April, May and June. If it were not for the packer and his refrigerator, contemptuously referred to as cold storage, the farmer would have to be content with a price between two cents and five cents a dozen for eggs during the season when they are plentiful, and the consumer would have to pay from $2.00 to $5.00 a dozen, if he wanted eggs during the season when they are scarce."

Professor Lippincott emphasized an assertion that exhibition poultry must be classed among the luxuries. He pointed out that in times of financial depression the first lines of business to feel the stringency are those that have to do with the luxuries and said that in such times the public purchases poultry and eggs at good prices long after exhibition birds have ceased to be saleable at any price. The speaker said, however, that "this does not mean that there is no money in fancy poultry, but that it is at the best a hazardous undertaking."

"The much advertised rooster that sells for upwards of $100 in the show room has about as much relation to the furnishing of society with eggs and poultry as the race horse has to plowing," he said. "A few men make money rearing and exhibiting poultry, but in both cases the very many fail to make expenses."

The Commercial Grower. "Commercially, the poultry industry of today has largely paralleled the history of the development of the modern common carriers, and advanced with improvement of refrigerator cars. It was not until means were afforded for transporting poultry products from the farm to the distant cities that production, beyond the demand of home needs became an object, and poultry a source of considerable income."

"Even in its present high state of development, without the national valuation of the annual product mounting toward a billion dollars," he continued, "it has essentially remained a home industry, providing, however, a considerable surplus which is handled commercially."

"Taking the country over, there are 394 fowls to the square mile of improved land. I have been unable to get hold of the exact figures for Missouri, but I presume that this is not far from the correct figure for Japan. I find supports 825 fowls to the square mile without ill results, which allows less than eight-tenths of an acre per fowl. There is no reason, as far as I am able to see, why we should not go considerably beyond this with safety, and have a farm flock of at least 300 hens on any farm of 150 acres or more."

HENS ON THE FARM

Furthermore, from figures taken from western states, I see no reason why the 300 hens should not supply the home needs, and make a net profit above feed cost, out not including labor of $5.00. This profit may be enhanced by the general introduction of the quality payment system in the purchase of poultry and eggs. Another great opportunity for a large profit in poultry is "cog to come with the growth of the rural community idea. I refer to the introduction of community breeding. I hope we shall live to see the time when here and there over Missouri, Kansas and the other western states, we shall find localities in which the people have realized that they are a community in interest as well as location, and have gotten together to such a degree that they are all raising one breed and variety of chickens."

A Farm Woman.

One of the best young business women in the state is Miss Aimee Burr, who manages a farm of 11,000 acres in Piatt county just a few miles south of Bement. Miss Burr's father died two or three years ago and since that time she has been in charge of the farm. She has made an earnest study of agricultural matters in "books" and has added to this fund of knowledge so much practical experience that she is said to be conducting the farming along very successful lines. She is only about 20 years old but is having no difficulty in getting desirable results from farming operations. Corn cribs on the farm have capacity of 30,000 bushels and an elevator near the Wabash tracks is owned by Miss Burr. A great barn on the farm affords room for 50 head of horses and 80 head of cattle, and other equipment is equally large.

SUDAN GRASS SEED. . . .

Article No. 2.

It will be of great interest to know how to grow Sudan Grass Seed to the best advantage. Prepare the ground like you would for corn exactly and drill the seed in with your cornplanter using a broom corn plate one of the smallest size, dropping the seed about 1-2 inch apart and 1-2 inch deep. It will grow slow at first so that a couple of cultivations can be given it like corn. In about 12 weeks the seed in the oldest stocks will begin to ripen, but as it does not shatter for several weeks you can leave it until the later shocks ripen. Then cut it with a corn binder and shock it in large shock like corn and in a week or so thresh it like you would wheat only taking out some if not all the concaves.

The threshed hay is much better than threshed timothy to feed because of the constant new stocks that are coming up so that all summer there will be a mass of fresh stems showing up and they enrich the threshed hay, besides the stock that makes the seed will die only to the first point and every joint below it will start out a shoot so the main stocks keep alive to feed these shoots and when they are cut they cure and make good feed. Not as rich as when cut before the seed matures but the stock will eat it all up clean and work horses fatten on it this fall while doing the fall plowing. One gets from 2 to 3 tons of threshed hay to the acre usually.

The food value of the seed: It is 1-12th stronger in protein than ground oats and it has yielded around 1200 lbs. to the acre this summer in several fields so that it is worth about as much as 40 bushels of ground oats to the acre and one usually gets a cutting of hay after the seed crop is taken off that runs near 2 tons. The hay sells at the top price of hay where it is known and will be the great hay forage for the farms as an acre will produce 2 tons of threshed hay, 1200 lbs. of seed and 2 tons of hay.

Every government article on Sudan Grass warns us against getting Southern seed. One must make the man they get seed of give a history of where their seed was grown, for the past two or three seasons, and it should be Northern grown as it crosses breeds with Johnson grass in the South and will develop a joint root.

Look for our next article on the "Hay Values of Sudan Grass and How to Grow It."

DAIRYMEN'S ASSOCIATION.

Several important demonstration lectures are to be given at the convention of Illinois State Dairymen's Association, to be held at Carbondale, Jan. 25, 26 and 27.

Probably first in importance will be a cow demonstration lecture. The association is offering two cash prizes of $10 and $5 for first and second cows in each of the four dairy breeds and for firsts and seconds in grades and crosses. These prizes will draw a number of cows for exhibition purposes, and from them will be taken the animals to be used in the demonstration lecture.

Prizes are also offered for exhibits of milk. A third demonstration is of special interest to the buttermakers in the creameries and the dairymen who make butter.

WAVERLY DEFEATS WHITE HALL IN BASKETBALL GAME

Waverly defeated White Hall on the Waverly floor Friday evening by a score of 42 to 21. The first half of the game was very fast and kept the spectators on their toes. The game slowed up in the second half when Waverly went out in the lead.

CHASED A WOLF IN SHILOH NEIGHBORHOOD

Friday morning while George Gouveia, residing near Shiloh church, was in his corn field among the shocks he was confronted by a good-sized wolf. Mr. Gouveia was unarmed and unprepared to fight the intruder, which slowly made way for the team. Mr. Gouveia secured some dogs and later gave chase. Once the dogs overtook the wolf and a combat followed, but the animal made his getaway successfully.

Mr. Gouveia says they are going to get together and make a combined effort to capture the creature. So far little or no stock has been missed, but a hungry wolf is apt to do a lot of damage. They hope to be successful in the case.

CANCELS FRANKLIN GAME.

The basketball game between the Jacksonville Y. M. C. A. and the Franklin Independents was cancelled, according to word from Manager Frye to Franklin Friday afternoon. The game, which was to have been played Friday night, was called off on account of the illness of a part of the team and the fact that others could not find it possible to make the trip.

Mr. Frye is in negotiation with the Springfield Y. M. C. A. speed boys and with the Bluffs Independents for games in the near future.

SENATOR MAGILL COMES TODAY.

Attention is again called to the address to be given by Senator Hugh S. Magill of Springfield before the Woman's Club this afternoon. The address will be given at 3 o'clock instead of 3:30, the hour previously mentioned. Senator Magill, who is also the superintendent of the Springfield schools, will talk about "The General School Law and an Ideal Board of Education." The address will be given at Academy Hall and the public is invited.

Mac Sheppard of Murrayville was attending to business matters in the city Friday.

HOLIDAY INTERRUPTIONS ARE LESS OF A FACTOR THAN USUAL

Seasonable Shutdowns at Manufacturing Plants Are Very Short Because of Urgent Demands.

New York, Jan. 7.—Dun's Review tomorrow will say:

"Preparations for the further extension of American enterprise are undertaken with increased vigor at the end of the holiday season. Domestic finances are in an unusually sound position and funds continue superabundant for all legitimate requirements, while there is no lack of the confidence essential to the launching and promotion of important projects. In the latter respect present conditions afford a striking contrast to those existing twelve months ago and moreover all the statistical barometers emphasize the changed situation prevailing at the opening of 1915. Unlike the beginning of 1915, the new year starts with a record production and distribution—at high prices—in many lines and an accumulation of forward contracts that ensures a continuance of the exceptional activity in about all branches of business. With comparatively few exceptions, annual settlements have been effected without serious strain and in a number of instances results of inventories surpass even the most sanguine expectations. Traveling salesmen are returning to the road and reports from every section of the country tell of bright prospects in the commercial world. Seasonable shutdowns at manufacturing plants were very short because of the urgent demands; yet, while holiday interruptions were less of a factor than usual, it is nevertheless remarkable that pig-iron output exceeded all monthly totals during September.

"Several labor troubles have developed in the basic industry but on the whole strikes are not seriously disturbing. Weekly bank clearings, $4,509,201,042."

SPEAKS WORDS IN PRAISE OF BOULEVARD SYSTEM

O. M. King of St. Joseph, Mo., was in the city yesterday for the first time since the installation of the boulevard lighting system, materials for which were sold the city by the King Foundry Co., with which Mr. King is connected. Mr. King spoke highly of the enterprise of Mr. Weber, secretary of the chamber of commerce, and the energy shown by him in pushing the project to completion. He emphasized the extent to which the appearance of Jacksonville has been improved by the new lights.

In Galesburg there have recently been added a number of boulevard lamps to the ones already in use. Streator and Macomb are among the cities which have lately put in boulevard lighting systems.

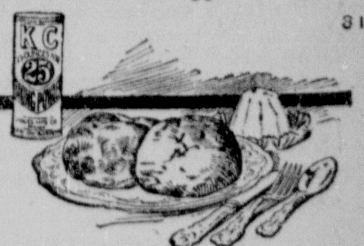

Mrs. Earl Lukeman of Alexander was a shopper in the city yesterday.

New Way to Make Apple
Dumplings

Served With Hard Sauce or Cream and Sugar

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

Here is a new way to make apple dumplings that will surely please every housewife, for it is not necessary to have whole apples, and the juice cannot run out and burn as with apple dumplings where the apple is placed in the center and the dough turned up around it. The biscuit part forms a crispy shell that holds the apples and juice.

K.C. Apple Dumplings
One and one-half cups sifted flour; ½ teaspoonful salt; 3 level teaspoonfuls K.C. Baking Powder; ¼ cup shortening; about ½ cup milk; apples.

Fill the cups of a buttered muffin pan with pared and sliced apples, sprinkle with salt and turn two or three tablespoonfuls of water into each cup. Sift together, three times, the flour, salt and baking powder; work in the shortening, and mix to a soft dough with the milk. Drop the dough from a spoon with the apples in the cups, giving it a smooth exterior. Let bake about twenty-five minutes. Invert the pan on a large serving-dish. Put a spoonful of hard sauce above the apple in each dumpling and finish with a grating of nutmeg.

This is only one of the many new, delicious and appetizing recipes contained in the K.C. Cook's Book, which may be obtained free by sending the colored certificate packed in every 25-cent tin of K.C. Baking Powder to the JACOBS MFG. Co., Chicago. Be sure to get the 25-cent size—smaller cans do not contain Cook's Book certificates.

It's Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets
For You!

Beware of the habit of constipation. It develops from just a few constipated days, unless you take yourself in hand. Coax the faded bowels back to normal action with Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Don't force them to unnatural action with severe medicines or by merely flushing out the intestines with nasty, sickening cathartics. Dr. Edwards believes in gentleness, persistence and Nature's assistance. Their action is gentle, yet positive. There is never any pain or griping when Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are used. Just the kind of treatment old persons should have. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil, you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two occasionally and have no trouble with your liver, bowels or stomach. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

EDWARD GWINNER WILLING TO BUY CLEVELAND AMERICANS

Announcement is Made by Gilmore After Long Conference.

New York, Jan. 7.—After a long conference here today between Jas. A. Gilmore, president of the Federal League; Harry Sinclair, owner of the Newark Federals; Edward Gwinner, president of the Pittsburgh Federals, and C. B. Comstock, vice president of the same club; President Gilmore said Gwinner would buy the Cleveland Americans if he could agree on terms with the banking committee that is now running the club.

"The price is nothing like what has been reported," said Mr. Gilmore. "but it is a little high. We know what the club is worth and when the committee meets our figures Gwinner will buy."

Mr. Gilmore would not make any definite statement as to whether Sinclair would buy the New York Giants.

"Just now Sinclair is out of baseball," he said. "but I am not saying he will not be back. I think Sinclair would be a good man to own a club in New York."

Gilmore said by the way that Sinclair owned any stock in the Chicago Nationals or St. Louis Americans, under the new order of affairs.

"While Mr. Sinclair conducted the negotiations for the Cubs for Mr. Weeghman he did not put a penny in the club, nor did he loan Mr. Weeghman a penny," said Gilmore.

Gilmore said nothing would be done about disposing of Federal League players until the baseball atmosphere clears. He announced that the Federal League meeting planned for New York on Jan. 17th has been postponed owing to the inability of Phil Ball of St. Louis to attend on that date.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE NOTES

The Illinois College devotional service will be held at Academy hall on Sunday evening, January 9th, at 6:30. Miss Ruth Brown will lead the service and the subject will be the "Value of Initiative."

Dr. C. H. Rammelkamp is making an extended visit in the east, where he went during the holidays to attend the meetings of the American Historical association and to spend some time in South Orange, N. J., visiting his mother.

T. Earl Wylder, '07, and his wife were visitors on the campus Tuesday. Mr. Wylder is connected with the United States Forestry Service in Greer, Arizona.

Ira J. Underwood, '11, was a visitor on the campus during the holidays. After graduating from Illinois College, Mr. Underwood took a three-year law course at Washington University, St. Louis, and is now practicing law at Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Miss Eunice T. Gray, head of Academy hall, spent the holidays with friends in Chicago and returned on Sunday evening to take up her duties at the hall.

Prof. Rollin H. Tanner attended the meeting of the College Section of the Illinois State Teachers' association on Wednesday, Dec. 29.

Prof. Isabel S. Smith, who spent the Christmas vacation at the home of her mother in Oberlin, returned Sunday.

A set of Burling books has been received by the college library for the use of the Biological department. This set of books was donated by Mr. Andrew Russell. The volumes are very beautifully illustrated.

Miss Lilly R. Rudd, financial secretary of the college, spent the vacation at the home of her mother in Oakbrook, Wis.

Russell Quisenberry is confined to Our Savior's hospital by illness. Louis O. Foster of the freshman class was unable to return to the college on account of the serious illness of his mother.

FOODS

THEY BUILD OR DESTROY
Amazing but Rarely Suspected Truths About the Things You Eat.

(Copyright, 1916, by Alfred W. McCann.)

CHAPTER 5.
The Monkey, Fish, Sheep, and Cow Teach Man the Meaning of Resistance to Disease.

Into the vast mixture of sordid greed, blind ignorance, untidy politics, tremulous uncertainty, selfishness, oppression, sickness, sham, love, compassion, cheer, justice, truth, and crime which we call civilization, nothing but nation-wide enlightenment and frank publicity will accomplish for pure food what legislation has failed miserably thus far to do.

Hundreds of food manufacturers, their agents, representatives, and "friends" have said to me, "Bosh! with this pure food business. Our fathers and mothers were taught nothing about it. Neither were we. Millions of us are still alive. If pure food had been necessary to us we would have all been dead, according to your point of view. Surely this proves, also, we know nothing about the most commonplace necessities of life, that it is not necessary to know. Eagles, crows, squirrels, were never taught anything about food. See how easily thrive."

"In its home among the trees the monkey is ignorant of the meaning of carbohydrates, proteins, fats, and ash. No hunter ever caught a monkey in its schoolhouse habitat suffering from appendicitis, tuberculosis, tumor, or swollen glands."

"The angler catches his hundred fish. The commercial net catches millions, and all are healthy, firm, and normal, fit for the frying pan and the grid."

"The horse is immune to tuberculosis. Out of every ten thousand sheep killed in the slaughter houses thousands of disease are found in only one, and sometimes not even in that one."

"Why?"

By such phrases as these the whole subject is dismissed. Let us remove the monkey from his natural surroundings and deprive him of his natural food. What happens? It is the experience of the manager to bury before their time monkey after monkey when they are fed on the artificial foods that come from the hand of man.

Come with me to the Zoological Garden in Bronx Park, New York City, or to the Zoo in Central Park, and see for yourself what happens to the chimpanzee, orang-outang, monkey, and gorilla. All of the die of tuberculosis, pneumonia, or pernicious anemia before their time. Later I shall tell you what they eat. Then you will know why.

Pollute the streams and change thereby the character of the food upon which fish subsist and they are no longer fit for the dinner table. For a period of three months, during the latter part of 1915, Dr. S. S. Goldwater, commissioner of health of New York City, placed an embargo on all the butterfish that came to the metropolis. Thousands of tons were condemned as unfit for food, because it was discovered that they were diseased, a condition attributed even by the authorities to their food.

Debase the food of the horse as we debase the food of the milkcow, and the horse, too, like the cow, becomes cursed with tuberculosis.

Do you not know it, but it is authorities of the contrary that from 10 to 50 per cent of all the milk-producing herds in the United States are affected with tuberculosis. No tuberculin test of any herd in New York State, including the so-called certified herds, for five years has failed to find tuberculous cows. They are in every herd.

It has been conclusively demonstrated by many investigators, including Professor C. K. Haecker of the University of Minnesota, that underling this tuberculosis of the dairy herds is the jugged food, consisting largely of commercial by-products, refined and denatured foods, upon which the animals are required to subsist. Upon the counterpart of these foods, denatured in the same manner, humanity is also asked to subsist.

All animals have natural instincts to guide them if they are caged or harnessed or put into a stall. The human animal has intelligence instead of instinct, and it is his failure to exercise this intelligence which is responsible for thousands of ills which his ignorance visits upon his innocent children.

It is the purpose of these articles to reveal to you why some plump children are pale and why some pale children are thin and why some children with normal red blood haven't an ounce of fat upon their bodies. The weight of the child has little to do with its morals, but the poorly nourished child manifests many abnormal characteristics which wise people tell us are "evil."

Many a little child, pumping impoverished blood to hungry tissues, feeling starved nerves with a plicated stream, nourishing a tired little body and a wearied little brain with debased food, goes for correction to the Children's Court or is "punished" for the mischievous pranks over which it has no control.

You have seen "bad" children, "cranky" children, "cruel" children, "reckless" children, "nervous" children. Do you know that many of them after a diet of six months on Mother Nature's food can preach wholesome sermons to their elders?

For them the peg has been removed. The angels—perhaps they can weep—know this. The world disregards the simple laws of nature in its consumption of degraded, debased, denatured foods and then cries out against God, blaming Him for the prevalence of disease upon the earth.

The lesson of the monkey, the fish, and the cow teach humanity nothing. On every hand is the extravagant effort of the professional chef, the home cook, and the commercial food factory to produce new novelties, factory effects for dinner, new and complex titillations for the surfeited and disordered palate of man.

In the creation of these aesthetic dishes there is constant wandering into fields far from nature's own. Let us not consider the normal fish, the healthy monkey, and the disease-resisting sheep. Let us consider instead the cases of cured tuberculosis among men, women, and children. Hope and faith are borne on joyful facts when the victims of that preventable affliction go back to nature and eat the foods that create a normal blood supply, providing vigor that has been lost unnecessarily.

The new red blood properly nourished arrests the progress of disease, walls up the tuberculosis lesions, and the patient, if not in the very shadow of death, is frequently reclaimed and made well. The peg is banished.

WILL OF MISS MCCARTY IS FILED FOR PROBATE

Also Remembers Our Savior's Hospital and Sisters of the Holy Cross.

The will of Miss Margaret McCarty, who recently died at her home near Franklin, was filed for probate with the county clerk Friday. Miss McCarty was possessed of extensive real estate holdings in the neighborhood of what is known as McCarty's Switch. Miss Nellie Tuite of this city is among the beneficiaries, being willed 61 acres of farm land.

The will was made Nov. 25, 1915, and was witnessed by Felix Shante and Margaret Shante. The will contains a clause which provides that if any beneficiary objects to the provisions of the will the objector shall be cut off from sharing in the estate.

Among other things the will bequeathes to William McCarty, a brother, 80 acres of land in sections 18 and 19, township 14. The bequest is made to pay said beneficiary for the amount owed him by the deceased.

To her cousin, Nellie Tuite, is given 61 acres in township 13. To her brother, Daniel McCarty, is given an undivided interest in 80 acres in section 16 and 80 acres in section 17, both in township 14. To Daniel McCarty for his lifetime is given the remainder of the property, both real and personal, to have the use and control of the same, it only being required that he shall place suitable markers for the graves of Miss McCarty and her sister, and corner posts for the burial lot.

The will bequeathes to Father M. J. Davis, Esther Frances Kehoe and three cousins, Theresa, Martha and John Walsh, 172 acres in section 13 and 10 acres in section 12, all in township 13, to be in effect at the death of Daniel McCarty. To Our Savior's hospital and the Sisters of the Holy Cross is bequeathed 10 acres in section 18, township 14, also to be in effect at the death of Daniel McCarty. To her cousins, Daniel and Catherine McCarty, and Mrs. Mary Cain, is bequeathed 80 acres in section 32, township 15. Daniel McCarty is made executor of the will without bond.

FORMER SCOTT COUNTY RESIDENT A VISITOR HERE

Henry Riggs, who has recently returned from his home in Los Angeles, California, and has been visiting with relatives in Scott county, was in Jacksonville Friday, renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Riggs' old home was west of Merritt and the Scott Riggs' homestead was two miles west of Riggsford. The Riggs family were pioneers of Scott county and among the influential citizens of that part of the state. The town of Riggsford was named after Milton Riggs, father of Henry Riggs. The people did not want to have it called Riggsford for fear it would confuse with Griggsville, in Pike county. Mr. Lucy, who was then superintendent of the C. B. & Q. railroad, which had recently been built thru the town, made the statement that he would fix the matter up, so the next time the railroad company issued a time table the name Riggsford appeared and it has been called that ever since.

Henry Riggs moved to California nearly eight years ago and since that time has lost his wife and sister. He likes the climate of the west but said that he was glad to get back again and feel a touch of winter. Mr. Riggs has business interests which will take him south and east during the coming months, and he is talking some of again making Illinois his home. He has a married son, Henry Riggs, Jr., who resides near Los Angeles.

"BURLINGTON WAY" GUIDE READY FEB. 1

The Burlington Way Good Roads Association will have their new 1916 official guide book ready for distribution about February 1. They may be obtained from any commercial club, hotel, cafe or garage in each hotel on the Burlington way. The guides are very instructive and have all information, relative to automobile laws, towns, and cities. The book also includes distances from small towns to St. Louis, Springfield, Rock Island, Galesburg, Burlington and Cedar Rapids. The guide book, very attractive, contains seventy-five pages and its covers are in orange and white.

GREEK CHRISTMAS YESTERDAY

Our Greek residents remembered that yesterday was Christmas in the far away fatherland and as far as ascertained none of them had any special observance of the day as they are now residents of the United States and conform to its usages and customs of their adopted land. The Greek calendar is thirteen days behind the one in use in this land so that their Christmas comes later than ours accordingly.

HELEN BROWN READ

It has been the gracious custom of Mrs. Read to give her services in song to her old home church (Congregational) something during the year. This her engagements allow her to render on the coming Sabbath. The numbers will be: "There Were Ninety and Nine" (by Champion), "Ring Out Wild Bells" (by Gonoud). Friends are invited to enjoy this worship in song.

PUPILS OF JEFFERSON SCHOOL WIN IN RED CROSS SEAL SALE

Highest Per Capita Sales Made by Fifth Grade, First Ward—Total From all Schools $840.—Pictures on Exhibition.

Pupils of the Jefferson school won high honors in the recent sale of Red Cross Christmas seals, reports of which have been made out by Mrs. E. P. Cleary, director of the campaign. The fifth grade in the Jefferson school made a per capita record of 54.31, the highest of any room. The school record of the First Ward building was 30.5. The Washington school made a per capita record of 23.65 and has the honor of possessing the individual with the highest record, Andrew Russell, who sold 530 seals. Arra Mallory of the Jefferson school was next with 529 seals sold. The total amount from all sales was $840.

The prizes which consist of pictures given by the Morgan county Anti-Tuberculosis league will be placed this morning in the window of Andre & Andre, where they will remain until awarded Monday. The third grade in the Lafayette school was so near to the corresponding grade in the Jefferson school in per capita average that it may receive a picture also. The two grades stood practically at a tie. Members of the league feel highly gratified with results of the sale and realize that without the willing co-operation of teachers and pupils success would not have come.

Following are the rooms ranking highest with the teachers of each: Third grade, Jefferson school—Taught by Miss English. Fourth grade, Morton school—Taught by Miss Higler. Fifth grade, Jefferson school—Taught by Miss Harney. Sixth grade, Jefferson school—Taught by Miss Mansfield. Seventh grade, David Prince school—Miss Eva Hammond's room. WOMEN IN THE NEWS.

Cincinnati—The interesting will contest before the British courts to decide the fortunes of American women claimants of the estate of the late Thomas A. Snider, wealthy preserve manufacturer of this city and New York, has had an interesting ending. Mrs. Mabel Snider Carleton of New York, niece of Snider, has been given until next week to decide whether she will accept a bequest of $20,000 or claim an interest in the estate. A Cincinnati woman, Miss Ethel E. Staunton, will receive about $100,000 from the estate, for the Privy Council of Great Britain, sitting at London, has reversed the finding of the lower courts of Canada and allowed her claim as the rightful heiress. Miss Staunton is the daughter of Snider's fourth wife, who was killed with Snider on her honeymoon. The evidence of the rescuers was presented to show that her mother died after Snider had died, and the court has therefore ruled that the fortune settled by Snider on his wife reverts to the daughter, and that she is the legatee of his estate.

Boston—To celebrate the foundation of the Young Woman's Christian Association in Boston, the present members of the association here plan to present a big pageant on its 50th anniversary, which will occur next month. The pageant will depict the development of the association all over the country and throughout the world, since its small beginning here a half century ago. College girls will join in the pageant, and 400 young women will take part.

London—Judge Haig, wife of General Sir Douglas Haig, who has taken over the command of the British forces in France, is credited with having exerted great influence toward her husband's advancement in the army. She was the Hon. Maude Vivian, one of the "Vivian twins," who were famous as maids of honor to Queen Victoria and Queen Alexandra. Lady Haig and Sir Douglas have not taken any particular pains to assume any leadership in London society since their marriage. They have two children, daughters named after the two queens whom Lady Haig has served.

Washington—Mrs. Nicholas Longworth has had a royal welcome back to the capital, where she had many triumphs in her girlhood days when her father was in the white house. She is entertaining with her old popularity, and there is a liveliness about her affairs that is attractive and exhilarating. She still adheres to her favorite blue, known as "Alice blue," and is radiant and dashing as usual.

Chicago—The "high cost of voting" in Chicago has been materially increased since the women were given the franchise. In the estimates made up for the year 1916, the election commissioners predict it will cost the city just $791,929 to permit feminine voters to express their preferences. There are at present on the registration books 234,533 names of qualified women voters.

New York—Mrs. Leo M. Frank, widow of the famous Georgia mob victim, is still searching for the men responsible for her husband's murder. She has the public interest in the affair has died down. Mrs. Frank is determined to uncover the mob leaders, and she is doing her own detective work. During a visit north for rest during the holidays, she is reported to have said that there were only four men in the mob who, at the last, demanded that Frank be killed.

Washington—The National Woman's Peace Party is to hold its first annual convention here, beginning next Saturday. Misses Jane Adams and Helen Keller are scheduled to speak at a mass meeting next Sunday. Many influential women are expected to attend the peace sessions on Saturday and Monday.

INSTALLING SWITCH BOARD.

E. R. Lapp, an electrical specialist, is in the city directing the installation of the new switch board at the plant of the Jacksonville Railway & Light Co. The work will require several weeks.

FOUR DATES FOR EXERCISES IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Prof. Greene of University of Illinois Suggests Some Proper Observances in the Schools.

Springfield, Jan. 8.—Four dates suitable for observance with public exercises of one kind or another in the course of Centennial year have been proposed by Professor Evarts B. Greene of the University of Illinois. Prof. Greene was one of the original members of the Illinois Centennial Commission, was continued on that body when it was re-created by the Fifty-ninth General Assembly, and has given the matter of a fitting centennial celebration much study.

The dates proposed by Professor Greene are as follows:
April 18—Anniversary of the date upon which the Illinois enabling act was approved.

August 26—Anniversary of the date upon which the first state constitution was adopted.

October 6—Anniversary of the date upon which the first governor was inaugurated.

December 2—Anniversary of the date upon which the Illinois constitution was approved by Congress and the state admitted to the Union.

It has been proposed that the Illinois centennial celebration in 1918 be arranged to spread over these four significant dates with appropriate observance of each anniversary.

"CASCARETS" FOR A COLD, BAD BREATH OR SICK HEADACHE

Best for liver and bowels, for biliousness, sour stomach and constipation. Get a 10-cent box now.

Furred Tongue, Bad Colds, Indigestion, Salty Skin and Miserable Headaches come from a torpid liver and clogged bowels, which cause your stomach to become filled with undigested food, which sours and ferments like garbage in a swill barrel. That's the first step to untold misery—indigestion, foul gases, bad breath, yellow skin, mental fears, everything that is horrible and nauseating. A Cascaret tonight will give your constipated bowels a thorough cleansing and straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your drugist will keep you feeling good for months. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then to keep their stomachs, liver and bowels regulated, and never know a miserable moment. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing, too. Adv.

ONE DOSE RELIEVES A COLD—NO QUININE

"Pape's Cold Compound" ends bad colds or gripe in a few hours.

Relief comes instantly. A dose taken every two hours until three doses are taken will end gripe misery and break up a severe cold, either in the head, chest, body or limbs.

It promptly opens clogged up nostrils and their passages in the head, stops nasty discharge of nose running, relieves sick headache, dullness, feverishness, sore throat, sneezing, soreness and stiffness.

Don't stay stuffed up! Quit blowing and snuffing! Ease your throbbing head! Nothing else in the world gives such prompt relief as "Pape's Cold Compound," which costs only

LINER HAS TWO GUNS MOUNTED
New York, Jan. 6.—The Italian liner Giuseppe Verdi arrived here today from Genoa, Naples and Palermo, with two four-inch naval guns mounted in the stern. The passengers said they understood the Italian government had been responsible for the mounting of these guns, which were intended to repel any submarine that might have attacked the steamship in the Mediterranean.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS
DEPRESSION IN WHEAT MARKET GROWS MORE PRONOUNCED
Increasing Receipts and Growing Difficulties of Shippers Lower the Prices—Closing Heavy.
Chicago, Jan. 7.—Increasing receipts and the growing difficulties of shippers had a bearish effect today on the wheat market. The result was a heavy close at 1 1/4 @ 1 1/2 net decline, with May $1.25 1/4 @ and July $1.17 1/2. Other leading staples, too, all showed a setback—corn 1/2 @ 1/2, oats 1/2 @ 1/2 and provisions 2 1/2 @ 2 1/2.
Depression in the wheat market grew more pronounced on account of shipping contracts here being made enforceable only as soon as the railway embargo at the east is removed. Even on that basis not more than 175,000 bushels was disposed of, and the aggregate of the day's export business for the whole United States was estimated at not surpassing 500,000 bushels.
Corn gave way with wheat despite some sales to Europe and notwithstanding new high record quotations at Liverpool. Receipts here were increasing but very slowly. Oats receded the action of corn. Selling pressure there was not much in evidence.
Provisions sagged because of the downturn in the hog market and in grain. Packers were on the selling side.

CONFLICTING ELEMENTS GUIDE COURSE OF ACTIVE STOCK MARKET
New York, Jan. 7.—Conflicting elements guided the course of today's active market to a considerable extent. United States steel, the backbone of the market, had seen in free supply during the early operations at 85, yesterday's low price, but on the upward movement of the afternoon it advanced.
Other shares, notably American Can, war descriptions and petroleum as well as coppers and miscellaneous issues, rose spiritedly from low levels, and General Motors, which registered an early loss of 2 1/2 points at 41 1/2, rebounded to 45 1/2.
Rails also participated in the rise, altho to a smaller extent.
Among the other specific movements was that of Mercantile Marine preferred, which made an extreme advance of 3 1/2 to 79 1/2 on unofficial statements purporting to give an outline of the proposed re-organization. Total sales of stocks amounted to $35,000 shares.
Reactionary tendencies were at work in the foreign exchange market, sterling falling more than two cents from its high rate of the previous day. Marks made the new rate of 73 on some early offerings but closed at 73 1/4, yesterday's minimum. Anglo-French 5's rose to 95 1/4, their high quotation of recent weeks and within a fraction of the syndicate price.
The known movement of money during the week points to a decrease of local bank reserves tomorrow, largely as a result of additional gold imports. New financing by railroads and industrial corporations is expected shortly.

LEATH CALLS EDWIN BEGGS AT AN EARLY HOUR FRIDAY

Prominent Ashland Resident Passes Away in Chicago—Widely Known for Grain Elevator Holdings.

A message was received in Jacksonville Friday morning announcing the death at Chicago of Edwin Beggs of Ashland. Death came to Mr. Beggs Friday morning at 7 o'clock after a somewhat extended illness, which had not been considered of a serious nature until within recent months.

Mr. Beggs was one of the most prominent grain men and farmers in central Illinois, and during a successful business career of about forty years had accumulated large holdings. He began the grain business in Ashland thirty-five years ago and in the succeeding years became the controlling factor in a corporation operating a very large number of elevators.

Mr. Beggs was born in the Centenary neighborhood not far from Ashland, January 25, 1851, so that at the time of his death he was nearly sixty-five years of age. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Beggs, who came to Cass county in an early day. Mr. Beggs was married twice, his first wife being Miss Emma Beggs. By this marriage he is survived by eight children. They are Miss Nellie Beggs at home; George E. of Princeton, New Jersey; Frank E. of Ashland; Miss Mary G. of New York City; Mrs. Edistina McCowan of Springfield; John, of St. Louis; Lulu and Virginia, students at Lehigh University. Mr. Beggs' second wife, who survives him was Miss Jessie Wilson, prior to their marriage. Two brothers and one sister, Abe L. and William Beggs of California, and Mrs. Emma Huey, living in Utah, also survive. Mr. Beggs' largest grain interests were as an officer and stockholder of the Central Illinois Grain company, which owns and operates thirty-three elevators. His principal associate in business for more than twenty years has been Charles R. Lewis of this city, and in addition to their grain business they have owned lands together. It will be remembered that they acquired the larger part of the land holdings of the late Mrs. Phoebe Strawn. Much of Mr. Beggs' money has been invested in farm lands and in addition to the valuable tracts that he owns in Morgan and Cass counties, he has very large holdings in Saskatchewan province, Canada, and in Minnesota. He also owns valuable real estate in Springfield, and was properly accounted one of the wealthiest residents of this section of the state.

The elevators owned by the Central Illinois Grain company are upon various railroads, among the stations being Greenville, Tallula, Elkhart, Springfield, New Berlin, Ashland, Prentice, Bates, Curran, Orleans, Alexander, Island Grove, Clemmons, Murrayville, Woodson, Bradfordtown, Cody, Loma, Leda, Barclay, Berry Springs, Timewell, Buffalo Heart, Clayton, Farmingdale, Prouty, Maxwell and Cockrell. In addition to his interest in these elevators, Mr. Beggs was a partner in several other companies owning elevators, and the firms of Beggs & Lewis; Cleary, Lewis & company, were of this number. Mr. Beggs' successful business career was built upon high integrity of action and his broad grasp of affairs. He studied markets and conditions, farming and livestock in their varied relations, and was one of the best informed men in this section of the state upon those interests which form the very basis of the nation's wealth.

For many years Mr. Beggs has been prominently identified with the work of the Methodist church and was a liberal contributor to the church and to various activities related to religious work. Although successful in business, Mr. Beggs was a man of retiring disposition but knew that his own judgment was to be trusted and did not hesitate to follow it.

For some time Mr. Beggs had been suffering from a weak heart and had been treated by local physicians. Upon their advice ten days ago he went to Chicago to consult a specialist and was a patient at St. Luke's hospital when the end came. His condition after reaching Chicago became suddenly worse. The remains will be brought to Ashland this morning and the funeral will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

COLLEGE LABORATORIES TO HAVE WATER SYSTEM

The science laboratories of Illinois college in Sturtevant Hall will be independent of the city water service in a short time, when electrical apparatus ordered for the college by Robert Lauphler of Springfield, recently appointed trustee, arrives and can be installed. A tank has already been placed in the attic story and the pump and motor are expected soon. Water will be obtained from a cistern underneath the building.

The improvement is made with a view to the convenience of the chemistry department mainly, though the biological laboratories will derive much benefit also. Mr. Lauphler is in the business of electrical contracting and his generosity is appreciated by students of the college as well as by the professors in charge of the departments benefited.

WIFE OF CHINAMAN CAUSES EXCITEMENT ON NORTH MAIN

Mrs. On Wah Becomes Hysterical and Inflicts Wounds on Herself—Police Make No Arrests.

The "Yellow Peril" threatened North Main street for awhile Friday afternoon. About 4 o'clock the police received a hurried call to the laundry of On Wah on that thoroughfare. When the police arrived they found Mrs. On Wah in hysterics with cuts on the head and two fingers of her left hand cut. It was difficult to glean much knowledge of the affair. It developed, however, that Mrs. On Wah had become involved in a family row just like Americans do at times.

Some people in the vicinity said that the row started inside and that Mrs. On Wah ran out of the laundry and was seated on the curbstone crying. It is said that On Wah ran out and dragged her back in the laundry. When the alarm was given to the station, Officer Baker responded from Cassell's cigar store and hurried to the scene. According to Officer Baker, Mrs. On Wah was inside and there was considerable blood on her head and her hand was bleeding. She also was stamping on the floor and carrying on "altec same" American woman.

Chief Davis went to the scene and someone telephoned for Miss Olive Blunt, who also went to the laundry and stayed with the woman during the afternoon and until 7 o'clock in the evening. Chief Davis said that he could see no injuries of any importance on Mrs. On Wah. He said the wounds on her forehead looked like scratches from a finger nail and that the fingers on her left hand were cut, but not seriously.

No arrests were made by the chief. An endeavor was made to find out the trouble. Mr. On Wah would not say much and his wife would not talk at all in English. As none of the police force could speak Chinese not much progress was made. It is said that Mrs. On Wah's sister died in China recently and the death has preyed on her mind and the probably has caused more or less nervousness.

No excuse for going cold if one has a little cash; Knobs.

SPLENDID FARCE STAGED AT GRAND OPERA HOUSE FRIDAY

"It Pays to Advertise" Presented by Company That Sustained the Cohan and Harris Reputation.

Cohan & Harris Co. presented "It Pays to Advertise" at the Grand Opera House last night to an audience that completely filled the house. When Manager Johnson secured this attraction for Jacksonville he gave theatre goers here an opportunity to see a farce hit which has gained country-wide denouement.

The story was written by Roi Cooper Megrue and Walter Hackett and tells of the commercial success of a young man who had quarreled with his father and then started out to make a success of business by a very strenuous advertising campaign. This statement does not sound especially funny, but the authors have developed the several chapters in such a delightfully ludicrous way that the audience laughs from the beginning to the end of the production. Of course a love story is intertwined with the other details, and throughout the whole is a fine philosophy of success which makes a strong appeal.

Cohan & Harris can always be depended upon for a high class cast with their productions, and the general rule was observed here last night, so that the large audience was thoroughly delighted with the production. A play of this character leaves a good taste in the mouth and serves to emphasize the fact that theatre goers really appreciate something more than tinsel and light song, and are even more ready to laugh at the clever lines and situations of a good farce than they are at the buffoonery of the comedians of the average musical comedy.

The cast here included James I. Mitchell, Daniel A. Anderson, James J. Gardner, Elsie Glynn, M. J. Sullivan, Gertrude Leland, Ruby Herlihy, H. N. Dudgeon, Felix McClure, Doris Jordan, Page Spencer and Mason Emerson, and a very capable company they constitute. A Jacksonville man who saw "It Pays to Advertise" at Cohan's Grand in Chicago, said last night that the company which visited Jacksonville was equal to the Chicago company. It was a satisfied pleased audience that left the Grand last night and with good reason. More such plays, Mr. Johnson.

MRS. HELEN BROWN READ SECURES GOOD CONTRACT

Signs for Twenty-four Weeks in Concert Work With Chicago Manager.

Mrs. Helen Brown Read has closed a contract with C. W. Best, a Chicago manager, to be engaged in concert work for twenty-four weeks beginning September 30, 1916. She will have associated with her an Italian harpist, Sali, who is a noted musician, and has scored many successes in Europe and has played with the Boston Symphony orchestra. Mrs. Read's contract carries with it a financial consideration, of no small means and she is to be congratulated upon her preference. The concerts will be given mostly in the middle west, and as Mr. Best has entered larger territory and is putting on better artists, Mrs. Read will have the honor of singing in many of the larger cities.

LITERBERRY GOOD ROADS MEETING PROMISES BETTERED CONDITIONS

Oiled Road from Jacksonville to the Cass County Line Will be First Objective of the North Morgan Good Roads Club.

An enthusiastic good roads meeting was held Friday afternoon in the photoplay house at Literberry and the sixty or more interested farmers in attendance took hold of the question with a spirit which promises a decided betterment in highway conditions before much time has passed. Well directed speeches from a score of men developed the meeting into a permanent organization. To be known as the North Morgan Good Roads club. Fred B. Henderson of Arcadia was made president of the club, with W. H. Crum of Literberry, vice president and Grant Gaines of Literberry, secretary-treasurer.

By-laws were adopted by the club allowing anyone interested in good roads to become a member. An executive committee was appointed, consisting of the president and vice president, together with James Black, W. H. Petefish and J. C. Becker.

The voice of the meeting was unanimous for better roads in the northern part of Morgan county. Sentiment was strong for at least one oiled road to Jacksonville, extending from the northern boundary of the county. Efforts will be made to secure aid from the county later on.

Everyone present seemed ready to aid in road betterment in substantial manner and the citizens of the section in question are determined to put the North Morgan Good Roads club on the map for "better highways."

The organization starts with a membership of nearly fifty citizens and tax payers. The meeting was adjourned, subject to call by the president.

GREAT REVIVAL TO BEGIN IN SPRINGFIELD

Chapman-Alexander Party of Evangelists Will Hold Services in Tabernacle.

Rev. and Mrs. J. Wilbur Chapman, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alexander, Henry Barroclough, pianist, and Albert Brown, baritone soloist, all members of the Chapman-Alexander party, who will open an evangelistic meeting in Springfield, arrived there yesterday afternoon. Jacksonville people will remember that Dr. Chapman conducted a union revival service in this city twenty years ago. He was then comparatively young in his work but conducted a very successful meeting here. Since that time he has won country-wide fame as an evangelist. Mr. Alexander who accompanies him, is equally well known, and both of the evangelists have conducted meetings in England as well as this country. Their methods are very different from those of Evangelist Billy Sunday and appeal to a class of people that he sometimes does not touch. Extensive preparations have been made for the Springfield meeting, which will be held in a tabernacle erected for the purpose. Over 600 persons have been enrolled in a chorus choir and 500 personal workers have signified their willingness to assist with the meetings. Rev. Mr. Alexander will direct the choir.

LADIES AID SOCIETY MEETS WITH MRS. GUSTAV ONKEN

Pleasant Gathering of Ladies of Methodist Protestant Church of Chapin—Mrs. Clark Entertains—
Other Chapin Items.

Chapin, Jan. 7.—The Ladies Aid society of the Methodist Protestant church held a delightful meeting today at the home of Mrs. Gustav Onken. After the business session, when plans were talked over for the new year a social hour was spent.

Entertains Gleaners.
Mrs. Robert Clark entertained Thursday evening the Gleaners Sunday school in honor of her sister, Mrs. W. H. Phillips, who resides northeast of Jacksonville. The time was spent in games and prizes were won by Miss Grace Davis and Mrs. L. Hadaway. Music was also a pleasure of the afternoon and at a late hour refreshments were served.

To Start Revival.
Rev. L. Hadaway has announced that he will start a revival meeting Sunday at the Christian church, to last for three weeks. Wallace Tuttle, a singing evangelist, will assist in the services.

Basketball Game Cancelled.
On account of so much sickness in the Manchester high school the Chapin team which was to have played them in Chapin remained idle. Another game is being arranged, the time to be announced later.

Personal Mention.
Mrs. Fred Eller spent Friday in Bluffs, visiting her sister, Mrs. Earl Williams.

Miss Gladys Knott has returned home after a visit in Beardstown. Miss Grace Davis who is visiting friends in Chapin spent Friday with Mrs. J. S. Burnham. She will return to her home in Edwardsville Sunday.

Earl Werles, a student at the Jacksonville Business college, is spending Saturday and Sunday with home folk.

C. A. Kratz of Concord was among the business visitors here Friday.
